WILSON COUNTY LAWYER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED

On August 7, 2015, the Supreme Court of Tennessee temporarily suspended Patricia Lynne Stolinsky from the practice of law upon finding that Ms. Stolinsky poses a substantial threat of harm to the public. Section 12.3 of Supreme Court Rule 9 provides for the immediate summary suspension of an attorney's license to practice law in cases where it has been demonstrated that the attorney poses a threat of substantial harm to the public.

Effective, August 7, 2015, Ms. Stolinsky is precluded from accepting any new cases and she must cease representing existing clients by September 6, 2015. After September 6, 2015, Ms. Stolinsky shall not use any indicia of lawyer, legal assistant, or law clerk nor maintain a presence where the practice of law is conducted.

Ms. Stolinsky must notify all clients being represented in pending matters, as well as co-counsel and opposing counsel of the Supreme Court's Order suspending her law license. Section 28 of Supreme Court Rule 9 requires Ms. Stolinsky to deliver to all clients any papers or property to which they are entitled.

This suspension remains in effect until dissolution or modification by the Supreme Court. Ms. Stolinsky may for good cause request dissolution or modification of the suspension by petition to the Supreme Court.
