OF THE
BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY
OF THE
SUPREME COURT OF TENNESSEE

IN RE: KEVIN TERRY, BPR NO. 15267
Respondent, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee
(Davidson County)

FILE NO. 32364-5(N)-PS

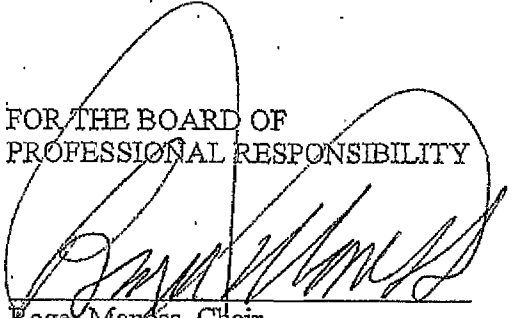

PUBLIC CENSURE

The above complaint was filed against Kevin Terry, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, alleging certain acts of misconduct. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 9, the Board of Professional Responsibility considered these matters at its meeting on March 12, 2010.

In July of 2009, the Respondent drafted a check on his trust account, but there were not sufficient funds in the trust account to cover the check, and an overdraft resulted. In August and September of 2009, additional checks were presented for payment that the Respondent had drawn on the trust account, which resulted in a larger overdraft balance. The Respondent admitted that his personal money was in his trust account. A review of the Respondent's trust account records revealed that in August and September of 2009, the Respondent wrote multiple checks on the trust account for personal items. The Respondent asserts that the trust account has not contained any client money for some time, and that he did not misappropriate any client money.

By the aforementioned facts, Kevin Terry has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 1.15 (safekeeping property) and is hereby Publicly Censured for this violation.
