DAVIDSON COUNTY LAWYER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED

On January 5, 2022, the Supreme Court of Tennessee temporarily suspended Alex Fletcher Thompson from the practice of law upon finding that Mr. Thompson was in substantial non-compliance with the terms of a monitoring agreement with the Tennessee Lawyer's Assistance Program ("TLAP"). Section 12.3 of Supreme Court Rule 9 provides for the immediate summary suspension of an attorney's license to practice law in cases of an attorney's noncompliance with TLAP's monitoring agreement.

Mr. Thompson is immediately precluded from accepting any new cases, and he must cease representing existing clients by February 4, 2022. After February 4, 2022, Mr. Thompson shall not use any indicia of lawyer, legal assistant, or law clerk nor maintain a presence where the practice of law is conducted. Mr. Thompson must notify all clients being represented in pending matters, as well as co-counsel and opposing counsel of the Supreme Court's Order suspending his law license and is required to deliver to all clients any papers or property to which they are entitled.

Mr. Thompson must comply with the requirements of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, §§ 28 and 12.3(d), regarding the obligations and responsibilities of temporarily suspended attorneys and the procedure for reinstatement.

This suspension remains in effect until dissolution or modification by the Supreme Court. Mr. Thompson may for good cause request dissolution or modification of the suspension by petition to the Supreme Court.
