JUDGMENT

This case was heard upon the record on appeal from the trial court, application of John O. Threadgill for permission to appeal having heretofore been granted, briefs and arguments of counsel; and upon consideration thereof, this Court is of the opinion that the trial court's judgment should be affirmed in all respects.

Prior to any requests for reinstatement of his license, Threadgill shall be required to:

- (1) Repay Eric and Michelle Nesbit the sum of $11,014.36;
- (2) Repay Samedi Rosenzweig the amount of $22,500.00;
- (3) Submit his trust accounts and all other business or office accounts for analysis by a knowledgeable accountant and comply with all reasonable recommendations of the accountant;
- (4) Reimburse all clients for all trust account monies owed to them for unearned fees;

and provide proof he has done so. Additionally, upon reinstatement, the Board of Professional Responsibility shall appoint an attorney to oversee Threadgill's trust account and business accounts for the period of one (1) year.

¹ At appellant Threadgill's request, we originally set this case for oral argument to take place on September 3, 2009. Pursuant to Tennessee Rule of Appellate Procedure 35(a), Threadgill moved to waive oral argument on September 1, 2009. The appellee Board of Professional Responsibility did not oppose the motion. We granted the motion and accepted the matter on briefs by a per curiam order dated September 2, 2009.

(5) Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 24.3, Threadgill shall pay to the Board of Professional Responsibility the expenses and costs of this matter, and in addition, shall pay to the Clerk of this Court the costs incurred herein, for all of which execution may issue if necessary. Payment of these costs shall be further conditions for reinstatement.

(6) Reinstatement of Threadgill to the practice of law in Tennessee shall be governed by the provisions of Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 19.

(7) The Board of Professional Responsibility shall cause notice of this discipline to be published as required by Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 18.10.

(8) Threadgill shall comply in all aspects with Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 18.
