ORDER

This cause is before the Court upon the Petition and amended Petition of Joverne Allred Trotter ("Petitioner") for the reinstatement of her law license which was suspended on July 29, 2002, for her failure to pay the annual fees to the Board of Professional Responsibility ("the Board") as required by Rule 9, § 20.1 of the Rules of the Supreme Court; and whose license was additionally suspended on October 18, 2002 for her failure to comply with mandatory continuing legal education ("CLE") requirements as set forth in Rule 21, § 3.01 of the Rules of the Supreme Court; upon this Court's Order entered on October 16, 2007, vacating Petitioner's suspension for her failure to comply with mandatory CLE requirements; upon the Response and Amended Response of the Board of Professional Responsibility ("the Board") admitting that Petitioner's annual fees were paid to the Board on October 1, 2007, and that Petitioner's suspension for her failure to comply with mandatory CLE requirements was removed on October 16, 2007; upon information from the Commission on Legal Education and Specialization verifying that during Petitioner's suspension, Petitioner has completed 89.78 hours of mandatory CLE credits; upon the Response and Supplemental Response to Petition for Reinstatement and Response to Amended Petition for Reinstatement of the Board stating that since Petitioner has been on inactive status for more than five (5) years, Petitioner may be required, pursuant to Rule 9, § 20.9 of the Rules of the Supreme Court, to establish proof of competency and learning in law which proof may include successful completion of the bar examination; and upon the entire record in this cause.

After a thorough review of the record, the Court is satisfied that Petitioner has demonstrated her compliance with Rule 9, § 20.9 of the Rules of the Supreme Court.

Accordingly, the Petition and amended Petition for Reinstatement filed by Petitioner, Joverne Allred Trotter, are hereby granted.

Costs of this cause are taxed to Petitioner, for which execution may issue, if necessary.
