CAMPBELL COUNTY LAWYER SUSPENDED

Effective February 3, 2022, the Supreme Court of Tennessee suspended Jody Rodenborn Troutman from the practice of law for four (4) years with one (1) year active suspension pursuant to Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 12.2, and the remainder served on probation conditioned upon compliance with any monitoring agreement recommended by the Tennessee Lawyers Assistance Program and incurring no new complaints of misconduct that relate to conduct occurring during the period of suspension and probation and which result in the recommendation by the Board that discipline be imposed.

Ms. Troutman executed a conditional guilty plea acknowledging her criminal misdemeanor convictions for theft of property and driving under the influence 1st and 2nd and her appearance in open court while under the influence violated Tennessee Rules of Professional Conduct 1.3 (diligence) and 8.4(b) and (d) (misconduct).

Ms. Troutman must comply with the requirements of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Sections 28 and 30.4 regarding the obligations and responsibilities of suspended attorneys and the procedure for reinstatement.
