BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY OF THE
SUPREME COURT OF TENNESSEE

IN RE: AGNES SIPPLE TRUJILLO, BPR NO. 025229
Respondent, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee
(Jefferson County)

FILE NO.
101768-2026-1-TT-INV

PUBLIC CENSURE

The above complaint was filed against Agnes Sipple Trujillo, #025229, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, alleging certain acts of misconduct. Pursuant to Tenn. Sup. Ct. R. 9, the Board of Professional Responsibility considered these matters at its meeting on September 11, 2026.

As conservator to an individual, Ms. Trujillo gained or had access to confidential information that created a substantial risk that the information could be used to materially advance a later client's position in subsequent proceedings where the new client's interests were materially adverse to the interests of her former conservatee. Ms. Trujillo's services as conservator were provided in circumstances not distinct from her provision of legal services to clients pursuant to Rule of Professional Conduct 5.7 (law related services). During the later proceedings, Ms. Trujillo failed to submit a hearing order and to seek an adjudication hearing date after a court order directing that counsel coordinate such matters with the court assistant.

By these acts, Ms. Trujillo has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.3 (diligence), 1.9 (duties to former clients), 3.2 (expediting litigation), and 8.4(d) (misconduct) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.
