

IN DISCIPLINARY DISTRICT IV
OF THE
BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY
OF THE
SUPREME COURT OF TENNESSEE

IN RE: CHRISTOPHER P. WESTMORELAND, #24789
Respondent, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee
(Bedford County)

FILE NOS: 50447-4-ES,
51304-4-ES

PUBLIC CENSURE

The above complaints were filed against Christopher P. Westmoreland, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, alleging certain acts of misconduct. Pursuant to Tenn. Sup. Ct. R. 9, the Board of Professional Responsibility considered these matters at its meeting on September 8, 2017.

A client hired Mr. Westmoreland to represent him on a petition to change custody. The court entered an order on August 19, 2016, restricting the client to supervised visitation. The client was aware of the ruling. Mr. Westmoreland mailed the client a copy of the order, but the client did not receive it. By email in September, November and December 2016, the client asked Mr. Westmoreland for a copy of the order. Mr. Westmoreland resent the order to the client in mid-December 2016. Mr. Westmoreland's conduct is in violation of Rule 1.4 (communication).

In March 2016, another client hired Mr. Westmoreland to represent him in a workers' compensation matter. A few months later, Mr. Westmoreland intended to withdraw from the representation, but did not do so. The tribunal entered orders in July and September 2016 ordering Mr. Westmoreland's client to respond to discovery. The client was not aware of these orders and the discovery was not completed. The case was dismissed as a discovery sanction on November 15, 2016.

By the aforementioned acts, Mr. Westmoreland is in violation of Rules 1.4 (communication), 1.3 (diligence), 3.4(c) (fairness to opposing party), and 8.4(d) (prejudice to the administration of justice) of the Rules of Professional Conduct and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.
