SEVIER COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On July 17, 2026, Robert Brandon White, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. White entered a no contact order as part of criminal charges he received in a personal domestic matter. Five weeks later, Mr. White violated the terms of the no contact order.

In 2025, Mr. White missed four scheduled court dates in different courts, without notice to the Court or opposing counsel, resulting in at least one notice to show cause and multiple rescheduled hearing dates.

By these acts, Robert Brandon White has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.3 (diligence), 3.4 (fairness to opposing party and counsel), 8.4(b), (d) and (g) (misconduct) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
