SEVIER COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On April 16, 2018, Andrew Nicholas Wilson, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Wilson represented a client whose case was moved from state court to federal district court. Mr. Wilson was not admitted to practice in federal district court and failed to respond to the court's request to file a motion to appear pro hac vice, to the court's show cause order, or to the court's order to appear. Mr. Wilson was accordingly removed as counsel of record and reprimanded by the district court.

By these acts, Andrew Nicholas Wilson, has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 5.5 (unauthorized practice of law), 3.4(c) (disobey obligation under rules of tribunal), and 8.4(d) (conduct prejudicial to administration of justice) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
