WILSON COUNTY LAWYER REINSTATED

On October 8, 2026, the Supreme Court of Tennessee reinstated Lisa Gayle Woolley to the active practice of law.

On September 16, 2026, Ms. Woolley was temporarily suspended by the Supreme Court of Tennessee for failing to respond to the Board of Professional Responsibility concerning a complaint of misconduct. Ms. Woolley filed a Petition for Dissolution pursuant to Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 12.3 on October 6, 2026, demonstrating she had responded to the disciplinary complaint and complied with the conditions imposed by the Order of Temporary Suspension. The Board filed a response acknowledging the Petition was satisfactory and submitted an Order of Reinstatement to the Court.
